

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI SWAT CHALLENGE

April 4th-6th, 2019

Sponsor and Vendor Information Packet

The Southeast Missouri SWAT Challenge is a law enforcement training event held in Honor of Deputy Chris Parsons who was killed in the line of duty December 15, 2012 as a member of the Washington County Sheriff's Department. Law enforcement teams, department representatives, volunteers and spectators travel across the country to Fredericktown, Missouri for three days of tactical classes, industry speakers, competitive training events, obstacle courses, and networking. Sponsorship and vendor opportunities during the kick-off dinner and throughout the event grounds provide you with an opportunity for face-to-face interaction with a targeted group of LE professionals and spectators.
